Charlie Whitehill, (March, 2010) Highland Arts Unlimited, Keyser, WV.

- It was good meeting you and helping host your group last Friday night in Keyser. We had a nice crowd and the box office sales tells us that we drew people that were new to us. The audience really enjoyed the performance and we appreciate the hard work and dedication it takes to maintain such an ensemble of dancers and musicians.
- We wish you the best this spring season and hope we can work on another project in another year.

Julie Berezin, (April, 2010) Lawrence Brook Elementary School, East Brunswick, NJ.

- The multi-cultural committee and I would like to thank you and all of FiddleKicks for helping make our festival a huge success! The students and staff have not stopped talking about your wonderful performance and workshops. Students have been demonstrating their new dance steps for their parents and teachers. Your energy and enthusiasm has spread throughout Lawrence Brook and we are eager to learn more.
- We were truly lucky to find such a talented group of musicians and dancers!

Carolyn Dees, (March, 2008) West Virginia Wesleyan College, 304.473-8360

- FiddleKicks began a short residency...by the time they left over 1,100 people—children, seniors, college & public school students, challenged citizens & fellow cloggers—were very sorry to say Goodbye.
- At each event, the individual members of FiddleKicks displayed expertise, skill, energy, an engaging stage personality, and professionalism. Offstage, they were just as obliging.

Lucinda Williams, (April, 2007) Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, McHenry, MD

- Folks here are still talking about the performances. Even more than the evening public performance, which was fantastic, I just think your education concerts are top notch. I highly recommend it to other presenters. The kids were thoroughly engaged throughout, your discourse with them from the stage was instructional yet fun and your pre-concert lessons are the very best.
- You've got it completely right.

Cecil C. Varney (Nov, 2005) Tug Valley Arts Council, Williamson, WV 606-237-9800

- "We wish to express our gratitude and appreciation for the extraordinary performance presented for our Tug Valley audience"
- "We are equally pleased with the quality of the performances. The technical skills were outstanding, and were only surpassed by the overall entertainment value. The musical interludes were especially noteworthy. Those musicians know how to please an audience."
- "Thank you for coming to the Tug Valley, and for presenting one of the best programs we have had in recent times."
